...selection of university students to partner in conducting recommended studies there needs to be an information sheet given to students and staff regarding the chemicals and/or radionuclides that they will come in contact with. The sheet should include all the associated health risks that are involved so individuals can make their own opinion on their working environment.

In regards to the below decision tree memo, there should be a section added that really spells out the difference in Source Removal as an option and the proposed acknowledging the fact that more several removal events will be needed for soil treatment.
