An interactive workshop to provide support for parents coping with childhood cancer:

1. In communicating with your child
2. Integrating communication skills in helping your child express and cope with their emotions
3. Opportunities for parents to:
  - express personal challenges and ask questions
  - share and receive feedback and like experiences with other parents with child with cancer
  - practice communication skills

Parent's workshop is for adults only. The children's program will meet at the same time as the parent's program in a separate room. Kids Circle facilitators, whom are licensed therapists specializing in working with children and cancer, will guide the children in an art project.

Marilu Duarte, LMFT, has a Masters of Science degree in counseling with an emphasis in marriage and family therapy. She has 9 years of experience working with patients and families affected by life-threatening illness and grief. She has a private practice in Camarillo and also works with Camarillo Hospice.

This activity is supported by educational donations provided by Amgen and The RED Family Fund.

Please call 805.379.4777 to register, include the names and ages of your children that will attend.
