

Prior to 1980, the Santa Susana Field Lab used the Calabasas Landfill for disposal of toxic waste as the landfill was licensed to do so. Due to the nature of hazardous waste and the secrecy of the SSFL, they were authorized to use the back gate into the landfill. This could be used in future cleanups as the pathway to the 101 Fwy without impacting housing developments and it has its own offramp.

<http://www.acmela.org/calabasaslandfill.html>